

Name: _____

Date: _____

Verb City

Where all the Action is!

Worksheet 1

Verb City is where all the action takes place.

Directions: Read the sentences below.

Underline the action words in each sentence. An action word tells what someone or something can do.

1. At night before bedtime, Grandpa and I jump on the bed.
2. After we jump, I am tired and want to sleep.
3. "Can you kiss me goodnight?" I ask my Mother.
4. At breakfast, I open the milk and pour it into a glass.
5. After I drink my milk, I eat two eggs and a piece of toast.
6. Then I play outside with my brother. I like to push him on the swing until he screams, "Weeeeeee!!!"
7. I love to feel the grass in between my fingers and know that we can sing, dance, and run all day long.

Great Job, You are so smart!

Name: _____

Date: _____

Verb City

Where all the Action is!
Worksheet 2

Verb City is where all the action takes place.

Directions: Read the sentences below.

Underline the action words in each sentence. An action word tells what someone or something can do.

1. It is such a warm day; I think I will swim in the ocean.
2. Before I jump in the water, I like to walk on the beach.
3. It is fun to look for shells and listen to the sounds they make.
4. I like to touch the sand and build castles with my family.
5. After I play in the sand, I am ready to dive into the water.
6. The fish hide from me when I chase them in the water.
7. When we are in the water, the fish breathe with their gills.
8. It was a fun trip to the beach; we will have to visit again.

Great Job, You are so smart!

Name: _____

Date: _____

Verb City

Where all the Action is!

Worksheet 3

Verb City is where all the action takes place.

Directions: Read the story below.

Underline the action words in the story. An action word tells what someone or something can do.

The Adventures of Verb City

At night before bedtime, Grandpa and I jump on the bed. After we jump, I am tired and want to sleep. "Can you kiss me goodnight?" I ask my Mother. At breakfast, I open the milk and pour it into a glass. After I drink my milk, I eat two eggs and a piece of toast. Then I play outside with my brother. I like to push him on the swing until he screams, "Weeeeeee!!!" I love to feel the grass in between my fingers and know that we can sing, dance, and run all day long.

It is such a warm day; I think I will swim in the ocean. Before I jump in the water, I like to walk on the beach. It is fun to look for shells and listen to the sounds they make. I like to touch the sand and build castles with my family. After I play in the sand, I am ready to dive into the water. The fish hide from me when I chase them in the water. When we are in the water, the fish breathe with their gills. It was a fun trip to the beach; we will have to visit again.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer Key

Verb City - Where all the Action is!

Worksheet 1

1. jump
2. jump, sleep
3. kiss, ask
4. open, pour
5. drink, eat
6. play, push, screams
7. (love), feel, (know), sing, dance, run

Verb City - Where all the Action is!

Worksheet 2

1. (think), swim
2. jump, walk
3. look, listen
4. touch, build
5. play, dive
6. hide, chase
7. breathe
8. visit

Name: _____ Date: _____

Answer Key

Verb City

Where all the Action is!
Worksheet 1

Verb City is where all the action takes place.

Directions: Read the sentences below.

Underline the action words in each sentence. An action word tells what someone or something can do.

1. At night before bedtime, Grandpa and I jump on the bed.
2. After we jump, I am tired and want to sleep.
3. "Can you kiss me goodnight?" I ask my Mother.
4. At breakfast, I open the milk and pour it into a glass.
5. After I drink my milk, I eat two eggs and a piece of toast.
6. Then I play outside with my brother. I like to push him on the swing until he screams, "Weeeeeee!!!"
7. I love to feel the grass in between my fingers and know that we can sing, dance, and run all day long.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer Key

Verb City

Where all the Action is!
Worksheet 2

Verb City is where all the action takes place.

Directions: Read the sentences below.

Underline the action words in each sentence. An action word tells what someone or something can do.

1. It is such a warm day; I think I will swim in the ocean.
2. Before I jump in the water, I like to walk on the beach.
3. It is fun to look for shells and listen to the sounds they make.
4. I like to touch the sand and build castles with my family.
5. After I play in the sand, I am ready to dive into the water.
6. The fish hide from me when I chase them in the water.
7. When we are in the water, the fish breathe with their gills.
8. It was a fun trip to the beach; we will have to visit again.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer Key

Verb City

Where all the Action is!

Worksheet 3

Verb City is where all the action takes place.

Directions: Read the story below.

Underline the action words in the story. An action word tells what someone or something can do.

The Adventures of Verb City

At night before bedtime, Grandpa and I jump on the bed. After we jump, I am tired and want to sleep. "Can you kiss me goodnight?" I ask my Mother. At breakfast, I open the milk and pour it into a glass. After I drink my milk, I eat two eggs and a piece of toast. Then I play outside with my brother. I like to push him on the swing until he screams, "Weeeeeee!!!" I love to feel the grass in between my fingers and know that we can sing, dance, and run all day long.

It is such a warm day; I think I will swim in the ocean. Before I jump in the water, I like to walk on the beach. It is fun to look for shells and listen to the sounds they make. I like to touch the sand and build castles with my family. After I play in the sand, I am ready to dive into the water. The fish hide from me when I chase them in the water. When we are in the water, the fish breathe with their gills. It was a fun trip to the beach; we will have to visit again.