

Commas

Commas are used to separate things in a list.

Example: I like to play soccer, tennis, and baseball.

Directions: Read each sentence and circle the commas.

1. My dad and I like to go fishing, swimming, and hiking on the weekend.
2. Jonas likes to watch movies, play games, and take naps.
3. Katie talks to her mom, dad, brother, and sister.
4. Orange, blue, purple, and green are my favorite colors.
5. Can you call John, Jake, and Jenny?
6. We will go to the beach, the park, and the pool.
7. Fred, Frank, and Freda are all going on a vacation!
8. Friday, Saturday, and Sunday are going to be really fun.
9. I went to the zoo and saw a monkey, a turtle, and a giraffe.
10. I want to ride my bike, jump rope, and swim this summer.

Directions: Add commas to separate the things in the list.

11. I like to eat cereal ice cream and popcorn
12. Sandy Mark Adam and I are all going to the store tonight.