

Cause and Effect

Directions: Read each sentence.

Write the Effect (what happens) and the Cause (why it happened).

1. Joe went to the store because he needed food.

Effect: (What happened?) _____

Cause: (Why did it happen?) _____

2. Kay ate a bowl of soup because she was feeling sick.

Effect: _____

Cause: _____

3. Rick was very quiet because the baby was sleeping.

Effect: _____

Cause: _____

4. Vicky got a vacuum cleaner because she wanted to clean the house.

Effect: _____

Cause: _____

5. Troy stopped the car because the light turned red.

Effect: _____

Cause: _____

6. Jenny raised her hand because she had a question.

Effect: _____

Cause: _____

Cause and Effect

Answer Key

Directions: Read each sentence.

Write the Effect (what happens) and the Cause (why it happened).

1. Joe went to the store because he needed food.

Effect: (What happened?) Joe went to the store

Cause: (Why did it happen?) He needed food

2. Kay ate a bowl of soup because she was feeling sick.

Effect: Kay ate a bowl of soup

Cause: She was feeling sick

3. Rick was very quiet because the baby was sleeping.

Effect: Rick was very quiet

Cause: The baby was sleeping

4. Vicky got a vacuum cleaner because she wanted to clean the house.

Effect: Vicky got a vacuum cleaner

Cause: She wanted to clean the house

5. Troy stopped the car because the light turned red.

Effect: Troy stopped the car

Cause: The light turned red

6. Jenny raised her hand because she had a question.

Effect: Jenny raised her hand

Cause: She had a question